SENATOR PAT HARRISON'S PUBLIC STATEMENT ON POLITICAL SITUATION

Says He Shall Not Inject Himself In Present State Campaign—As Chairman of Finance Committee Has Heavy Responsibilities and Will Stick to Post

The Sea Coast Echo received a copy of statement given out at Washington Sunday by Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, in which he states his position politically that he will not take part in local political controversies and will stand by duties of his post—regardless.

Senator Harrison, "in answer to man inquiries about the political situation in Mississippi" says:

"I reiterate that I have not and shall not inject myself into the political controversies arising in the present campaign in Mississippi. So far as the candidates for Governor are concerned, they have been and I believe are now my friends. I shall not countenance, if in my power to prevent, any federal set-up being used to advance the cause of any candidate. The heavy responsibilities that have been placed upon me here, as Chairman of the Finance Committee, have made it impossible for me to keep up with the cross-currents of political thought and political action in Mississippi. I have worked overtime in discharging my duties here. Certainly the people of Mississippi recognize that so far as I am concerned that is of first and primary importance.

Federal Appointees Not Obligated

"I have told the head of every federal agency in Mississippi that I did not desire and would not countenance such political activity upon the part of any federal office holder who received his appointment through my endorsement in whole or in part. Every person, whether holding a federal position or not, has a right to his choice and to select and vote for those persons whom he believes best qualified. Certainly because he or she is holding a federal office or position should not deny an American citizen that privilege.

Free To Exercise Free Will

"I have further asked the heads of those federal agencies in Mississippi to serve notice upon every person in their employ that they do not become politically active in this or any other campaign so long as they hold these federal positions, but to state to them that without dictation, suggestions or intimidation, they are to exercise their own free right to vote for whom they please.

"I have received some letters stating that my colleague was at this time appointing a large number of his friends to federal positions in Mississippi, and some have been critical of my permitting such a policy to be pursued. I have written to them, and to others who may have a similar view I desire to say, that when Senator Bilbo was elected by the people of Mississippi as my colleague, I told him at that time, and I adhere now to that policy, that he would receive and was entitled to an equitable distribution of federal patronage in Mississippi.

Accede Patronage To Confere

"When Senator Stephens was my colleague he and I endorsed and caused to be appointed the persons and officers in the HOLC, Federal Housing, Internal Revenue Department, U. S. Marshals, District Attorneys and their assistants and deputies. Other federal agencies were filled likewise. I told Senator Bilbo when he was inducted into office that I did not desire the personnel in those institutions to be disturbed, but that as vacancies occurred and new offices were created, his recommendations should be given preference until the time was reached when there would be an equitable distribution of federal patronage between him and me in Mississippi. I shall adhere to that policy, because he is entitled to see that some of his friends get some of the fruits of victory.

Must Be Competent to Hold Job

"I have always and shall continue to demand that in the filling of any federal position in Mississippi, persons should be competent to do the job. The only thing I am interested in, so far as federal agencies in Mississippi are concerned, is to render real service and do a good job. To that extent I shall cooperate to the limit.

Future Political Plans to Be Announced Later

"As to my own political future, the great weight of responsibility during this session of Congress has prevented me from giving it any consideration. At the proper time I shall announce my candidacy for reelection."

WHITE TO SPEAK AT KILN 15TH

Candidate For Governor To Address Voters There on Monday Afternoon at 2:30 O'Clock

Hugh White, Columbia Industrialist, candidate for Governor on a platform that will put people to work, will speak at Kiln next Monday, July 15 at 2:30 P. M.

Mr. White was runner-up in the campaign of 1931 and was accorded a surprisingly large vote in this county at that time, however, political wisecracks here state that he will receive an even larger vote in the August primaries.

During the past four years Mr. White has devoted much time to gaining new industries for the State and has met with splendid success in his endeavors. The keynote of his platform is his plan for the industrialization of the state or the balancing of industry with agriculture.

Other measures that he advocates are $1 automobile license tags, the electrification of the state at TVA rates, refunding of state, county and municipal bonds at a rate of interest not to exceed 3 per cent, and measures that will aid the farmer to gain a fair price, and ready market for his products.

Speaking at Kiln Mr. White hopes to speak to practically the majority of the people of the Jordan river district of Hancock county. He wishes to industrialize Mississippi and nothing would be more suitable for Kiln on Jordan river to acquire a number of industries that would put that section of the county back on the map, especially since extensive lumber and lumber operations of the Hines Lumber Company have ceased.

Mr. White hopes to speak to a large crowd. His sound wagon will carry the voice to all parts and his listeners will have no difficulty to hear his message.

Judge Paul B. Johnson
To Address Voters of Bay
St. Louis Wednesday at 8

Judge Paul B. Johnson, of Hattiesburg, candidate for gubernatorial preferment, is booked for a speech at Bay St. Louis Wednesday, July 17, at 8 o'clock P. M., at the Court-house. He will be introduced by Sheriff T. Ed. Kellar. Ladies in particular are specially invited, as well as gentlemen voters.

Judge Johnson is a forceful speaker, vigorous of mind and physically active and will have lots to say. His address will be of interest and his messages always warrant a large crowd. The date, next Wednesday evening.

LT.-GOV. HAS SOUND TRUCK

While Lt.-Gov. Murphree spoke at the courthouse Tuesday afternoon, many standing on the courthouse grounds and in the neighborhood heard the address equally as well as those within the building. Gov. Murphree was recently presented with a sound truck by admiring friends over the State and used the broadcasting appliance in connection with his address indoors. It is a splendid equipment and makes it easy for the speaker and listener.

TO PAINT NAMES OF STREETS

In order the thousands of visitors to throng our city throughout the season may become better acquainted, the Board of Mayor and City Commissioners are having names of streets on sidewalk curbing repainted, in black letters on white background. Joseph Gilbert, who did the work last year, has the contract. This information has proved of value and it is well the weather-worn signs are to be repainted.

Bank deposit insurance continues by virtue of a resolution extending the present $5,000 limit for sixty days, after which it is presumed that a banking bill will be enacted.

"NAUGHTY MARIETTA" AT A. & G. THEATER SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Adventure, Romance and Immortal Victor Herbert
Songs Blended in Stirring Musical Drama

Drama, romance, thrills, and the gorgeous music of Victor Herbert's greatest operetta are blended in "Naughty Marietta," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's spectacular romance of Creole days in New Orleans, which brings to the screen Jeanette MacDonald, glamorous heroine of "The Merry Widow," and Nelson Eddy, eminent American operatic baritone. Directed by W. S. Van Dyke, of "Thin Man" fame, it tells a graphic story of the settlement of New Orleans by the French in the days of Louis XV and of the love of a disguised French princess, seeking escape from a marriage of state, and an English officer.

The new photoplay is based on the Victor Herbert masterpiece in which Emma Trentini and Orville Harold first starred on the stage. The dramatic side of the adventure, thrills and perils of the period is stressed as a thundering background for the glamorous music.

Such song hits as "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," "I'm Falling in Love With Someone," "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," "The Italian Street Song," and all the original music of the operetta is retained with new lyrics by Gus Kahn, of the famous song team of Donaldson and Kahn.

Prominent is a large cast in support of Miss MacDonald and Nelson Eddy are Frank Morgan as Governor D'Annard, Elsa Lanchester (Mrs. Charles Laughton) as Madame D'Annard, Douglas Dumbrille, Joseph Carruthers, Cecilia Parker who scored well, Walter Kingsford, Greta Meyer, Akin Tamiroff, Harold Huber and Edward Brophy. Spectacular reproductions of New Orleans and Paris of the period, gorgeous costumes, and elaborate staging mark the new production.

MURPHREE SPEAKS TO BAY CROWD

Speaks at Courthouse in Interest of Candidacy For Governor

Lieutenant-Governor Dennis Murphree of Mississippi delivered an address at the courthouse Tuesday afternoon in the interest of his candidacy for governor.

His address was along the same lines as that delivered elsewhere over the State in the interest of his candidacy.

He told of his "Know Mississippi Better Train," which he had sponsored the past ten years, advertising the State without costing tax-payers one penny.

He told of past services to the State, asking that he be judged by his past record.

One of the things he did was to use every means in his power to get a bill through to secure the $10,000,000 from the Federal government for road building but the measure was killed by Governor Connor's veto. He fought a federal highway bill that would allow one man to practically control all highway expenditures. He thought the people ought to elect the highway commissioners and if they did not like them, they could be voted out.

As to being a highway commissioner's candidate, he branded that as false. He did not know how either Hughes or Linker would vote, he said, but he was sure if Brown Williams got out of the hospital in time, he would vote for Murphree.

Discussing a road building program which he said he had originated, he told how he would construct 1500 miles of Mississippi highways with no other output than the application of 1 cent of the gasoline tax to liquidate a 20-year loan from the government. He proposed to borrow $16,500,000 through the PWA at 4 per cent interest for 20 years. With the $13,500,000 which the government would give under its plan of supplementing a loan with a 45 per cent donation, the state would have $30,000,000, a sufficient amount, Mr. Murphree said, to pave every federal marked road in the state.

He had originated a bill to assist poor people to get hospital treatment in different parts of the state and people who had lost their homes on account of non-payment of taxes the first chance to buy back their homes at a comparatively low cost.

He favored education and had done all he possibly could in the past to get legislation through that would benefit the schools and colleges in the state.

Gov. Murphree's address did not reveal anything new.

However, he made no promises such as free school books, and "free" so many things, which in the last analysis the tax-payers is shouldered with the burden. His address was conservatively delivered to a large assembly and was well received.

He left the same evening and practically delivered the same address at Gulfport that night.

JULY MEETING BOARD MANAGEMENT PUBLIC LIBRARY TUESDAY

Marked by Mrs. K. W. Pepperdene's Paper On Divers
Topics of Interest

The July meeting of the Board of Management of The Hancock E. R. A. County Library, took place on Thursday morning at nine-thirty o'clock. A ruling was passed concerning the volumes for which money payment is asked, setting the rental of short books, in a light mood, at two cents a day for the first four days and five cents for each day for use thereafter; while long and intricately written biographies, histories, and novels will be at the rate of two cents a day for the first seven days, and five cents a day for extra use.

The Plutocrat, by Booth Tarkington, and A Lantern In Her Hand, by Bess Streeter Aldrich, were withdrawn from the list of books for which dues are charged and entered on the list of books that may be read without rental; Young Renny, by Maya Dela Roche, and The Grass Grows Green, by Hortense Lyons, will be purchased to replace them. Ellsworth Collins, son of Sammie Collins, has done the carpenter work on the new furniture for which lumber was recently given the Negro branch of the Hancock E. R. A. Library by the City Council.

Review of the Month Club's business meeting of the Library Board, The Review of the Month Club, presented its monthly program. An outline of diverse topics of interest, as reported by the national press, was given by Mrs. Kenneth W. Pepperdene in a current events talk. Her skillful choice of contrasting items, and the humor with which many of them were presented, made the address pleasant and interesting. Rupert Hughes, that Carrie Nation of patriotic misunderstandings, tells us too late that Independence Day should be celebrated on July 2 instead of July 4; babies immersed in blue light are more tractable for the moment than those immersed in red or green; the New Deal Alaskan colony was planned without taking into consideration the comfort of its newest colonists, the new born children Pearl Buck the author of The Good Earth, has divorced her present husband in China to marry her publisher in America.

Mrs. Pepperdene was rewarded for the effective juxtaposition of her selections by the audience. She was followed on the program by Mrs. Gus Terry who reviewed Now In November, the recent Pulitzer Prize novel by Josephine Winslow Johnson. With a subtle and delightful feeling for the author's own background as relevant to the writing of the book Mrs. Terry first read from a clipping a vignette of Miss Winslow's life, touching on her work as an artist, a writer, a sheltered and gently reared personality with a feeling for the sorrows of people less fortunate than herself; so that she borrowed color from stories an uncle told her of farmers as he had known them and wrote Now In November.

The book deals with a farm in Missouri, the farmer, his wife and their three daughters, Kerrin, Margot and Merle. Kerrin is mad, Margot is a philosopher and tells about the others, and Merle is a normal girl. But Kerrin and Margot are in love with a farmhand, who in turn loves Merle. Merle will have nothing to do with him.

Mrs. Terry's review was sympathetically and finely told, and worthy of the lovely phrasing of the book. But the old, untiring pessimism of professionally artistic was so heavily the thread on which the mournful tale was strung that one was seized with the wish that the farmer class might become articulate; might write, in turn, of the sufferings of the intelligentsia.

Interested persons may attend the meetings of The Review of the Month Club for the admission fee of ten cents. The money collected in this way is turned over to the library.

Young Colored Boy
Drowns Friday Morning
While In Bay Waters
Leo Paul Lafargue, 12-year-old son of Henry Lafargue and wife, residents of Waveland, but the father in the employ of the estate of Mrs. John N. Stewart, Jr., was drowned Friday forenoon from the Stewart wharf as he went over for a dip in the waters of the bay. Going down the boy failed to come up again, the depth more than expected, it is said. Clarence Bash recovered the body shortly after the occurrence and the body brought out to where local doctors and others did all that was possible to resuscitate the boy was done but to no avail.

The body was taken over by the Fahey Undertaking Company, prepared for burial and was laid out at the family home in Waveland that night; interment next day.

WHERE TO SPEND THE WEEK-END
With the advent of warmer weather the Mississippi Gulf Coast is calling the outsider. Fishing, boating, bathing await the visitor. The motorists will find this section a veritable paradise.

Louis Lange and Bernie Shields, winners for two consecutive years of the Gulf Coast doubles tennis title, were defeated Sunday at St. Stanislaus college at Bay St. Louis by Paul Gooseman and Donald Diboll in a close, exciting match which kept the spectators on edge during most of the play. Gooseman and Diboll took the first set 6-4 in a dazzling net attack which forced their opponents to the back court, but Lange and Shields rallied to even the score by taking the second set 6-2. Although Lange scored many placements and Shields' lobbs continually kept them worried Gooseman and Diboll seemed to be impenetrable in their attack, Gooseman sending shots to the far corners while Diboll's deep returns did not give the ex-champions a chance to come in. The final scores were 4-6, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4.

Paul Gooseman advanced to the finals by defeating Martin Mayer in a thrilling five-set match which brought forth spectacular shots on the part of both players. Long rallies in the hot sun sapped the energy of both contestants and it was any man's game up to the final match point. At the rest period, Gooseman was leading two sets to one, but Mayer came back strong to even the score by taking the fourth set, 6-3. Mayer played an all-around game, bringing forth his fine variety of strokes; but Gooseman always seemed to be there and get the ball back. Mayer's dropshots caught Gooseman many times for a point, but Gooseman kept pounding away at his opponent's backhand so continuously that he finally wore him down, winning the match at 3-6, 6-4, 6-3, 6-3.

Louis Lange, the defending champion, eliminated William Macassin in the other 'singles semifinals match with scores of 6-2, 6-3, 6-4. Lange's play was impressive as he scored repeatedly on smashing placements. The champion's shots were working beautifully crosscourt and down the lines. Macassin played his usual spectacular net game and put away many shots in the early rounds, for a time taking the offensive, but weakened in the end as he was passed repeatedly by his opponent's deadly replacements.

In spite of the downpour of rain Saturday, forcing cancellation of the girls' singles, Brother Cornelius had the courts in fine playing condition the next morning. Paul Gooseman will meet Louis Lange in the finals of the men's singles next Sunday afternoon, July 14. Cups for the doubles finals winners were ably presented by W. J. Macassin after the matches.

PRIESTS HOLD ANNUAL RETREAT

BUILDING LARGE FAMILY RESIDENCE

Arthur Johnson, well-known contractor and builder, has in process of construction quite a large dwelling, to be occupied by his family and self. The building is located on one of the choice corner lots of Bay St. Louis Sub-Division, out St. Charles street and L. & N. highway connecting Bay St. Louis with Waveland. Built of California redwood the building has appearance of being constructed with cedar and is quite outstanding.

POLITICAL RALLY ATTRACTS MANY

Perhaps the most-largely attended political rally locally was held Sunday night on the street and neutral grounds opposite the Levine Store buildings and L. & N. R. R. grounds. Sheriff Kellar introduced the speakers in his usual clever manner. A number of addresses by local candidates were heard and broadcast by means of a sound appliance and the speakers were distinctly heard from all parts of the neighborhood.

FOR LOCAL RECREATIONAL FACILITIES

MAYOR Blaize, who has always advocated a recreation building and pier for Bay St. Louis, in order to accommodate the many resorters who favor our shores each season with recurrent visits and to attract and to care for many more who might otherwise not visit here, is more than ever an ardent advocate for this improvement. He is vitally interested, realizing full well its significance to this section. His associates are equally in favor, feeling that in the realization of such project a "long felt want" will have been filled.

A visit to Gulfport reveals the success of such community building (on beach) and bathing pier; at Biloxi the same exists. The latter provides for an extensive playground and park on the beach and a public pier. Across the street a building with ample garden and picnic ground equipment affords spacious proportions and abundant facilities of a community house.

Bay St. Louis city fathers are hopeful federal funds allocated for similar purposes may be available for such improvement here, without matching a dollar, and with this in view every effort possible is exerted in order we may realize a "consummation devoutly to be wished for."

LOOK BEFORE SHOOTING

AN 11-year-old girl died the other day because a farmer was anxious to wound a chicken thief and shot into his field of rye when he saw a crouching figure there.

Unknown to him, the girl, a visitor to his home, had made it a practice to play in the evening in the rye. She was playing happily when he ran out into the field with a double-barreled shotgun and cut loose with both barrels. Her last words were, "If I die please give my love to my mother."

This sad story merely illustrates what happens all over the country because men are too quick to shoot. Of course, no one likes to have others steal his chickens, or his crops, or anything else. At the same time, there is little excuse for the quick-trigger action that often results in the death of innocent people.

EVERYBODY NEEDS A VACATION

THE summer season being at hand, according to the calendar, we may take it for granted that vacations will be taken by as many as can afford to get away from work. There will be some citizens of Bay St. Louis who won't have time to take a rest! They are foolish; a longer rest will come sooner.

Unfortunately, those who need the rest will be hardest to convince that vacations pay. They will think of the money to be spent, the income to be lost, and the many uses to which the sum could be put. They will decide, perhaps, to stay at home, bending over the work a little harder, and driving the body to its task. Not only will they deplete their strength physically but they will fatigue their mental powers, causing lost efficiency.

SELECT YOUR FRIENDS

THE younger people of Bay St. Louis have probably knocked around in life enough to know that it is very important for them to associate with the right people. Nothing is so contaminating as association with evil companions.

If there are things that you prefer not to do the proper defense is not to associate with the class of people who do them. If there are things that you admire, and would like to do, the proper encouragement is to linger with the doers.

Be careful of the people with whom you run and your habits will almost take care of themselves. Laxness in selecting one's friends almost inevitably results in laxness of character.

FLIES AND TYPHOID

IT MAY be monotonous but our advice continues to be, "kill the flies." People in Hancock County will find this job less tiresome and less expensive than attending to the first case of typhoid that hits their family.

Screened houses and energetic use of a good fly swatter are health insurance policies. Typhoid is a disease that wears down the patient. It is transmitted through filth. It can be avoided in most cases by a vigorous slaughter of flies.

HELP YOUR OWN CHILD

FEW parents in Hancock county have anything to do that is more important than assisting junior to become a better citizen than senior.

Every parent wishes greatness of character for the youngsters, but many of them fail to develop the comradeship that is vital to the proper mental, physical and moral growth of parent as well as child.

So far as we are concerned the Key boys can have the record for staying in the air more than 27 days unless Congress wants to put in a claim.

THE BILL IS COMING DUE

HAVE you ever noticed how easy it is to establish a charge of term-payment account in a department store?

But no matter how easily the credit is obtained, or how small the payments, they come due regularly and if not paid—well, the law just takes it course and the debtor suffers.

The people of the United States are just now waking up to the fact that they have been on a gigantic spree. Never did they use their public credit so freely. But the day of reckoning is here. The charge accounts are coming due and the payments will have to be made.

Just as the unwary customer is talked into spending more than he can afford by the super-selling ability of the expert clerk, so have an unwary people been talked into spending more than they can well afford to pay, by the silver tongues of the politicians.

In the latter case, however, the people thought they were going to be given something for nothing—that the billions of dollars handed out in the name of "relief" and "recovery" would be taken from somebody else's pocket.

But the dream has ended. The tax-gatherer's hand is going right down into John Jones' pocket to take out the money to pay the charge account, for the "gifts" to Jones.

A NEW tax-raising bill has been thrown into the lap of Congress, that will have a tremendous effect on the earnings, the savings and the estates of every citizen. For camouflage and publicity purposes, it is designated as a "share the wealth" or "soak the rich" tax program. The Portland Oregonian says:

"This is but the beginning... The government Santa Claus is about to be withdrawn... Gradually he is to become overshadowed by another figure. This one will appear to the taxpayer ere he plays out his part, like a government Shylock. There is no other way."

"Good old Uncle Sam is going to make the pay and pay. Nothing is said about making other people pay. But that will come later. We are all going to pay—pay through the nose and pay till it hurts, in increased federal taxes down through the lower brackets. Our tax bill during the next generation is going to be a thing high, wide and handsome, and at the same time fearsome. It is not going to fall lightly anywhere. It is going to fall heavily on all who have incomes, in whatever brackets."

CHARGE accounts of the government (tax bills) become due just as do charge accounts of stores (private bills). There is no difference whatever in principle—but there is a great difference in fact, in that the government, if you fail to pay your tax bill, can use more harsh and ruinous methods on the individual to force payment than can the private store. There is no leniency shown by the tax collector. He collects your taxes, or he takes your property.

ESCHUEW CHEAP POLITICS

WITH elections drawing nearer the time is approaching when, it is hoped, people will be able to give serious thoughts for development of the State's resources and the upbuilding of our local elements and possibilities into more potential factors that will spell permanent success and subsequent prosperity.

It were better for our people as a whole to stop listening to the silver-like voices of the candidate that gives rise to many promises and in the last analysis which mean nothing.

Political promises are like the ocean wave. Hope rises high on such crest only to be dashed away and spent into an emptiness on the sands. The campaign through the State is largely of that kind. There are few real issues, and as result of a lack of substantial and constructive issues, candidates have been indulging into promises. One cannot go very far on pretenses. They are not cashable at the bank, nor acceptable for deposits neither will they be taken as legal tender or in trade at the market and store keeper's.

Politics have always lured many. They thrive on the isms of a campaign. It is high time we were settling down to work; that we would quit considering illusions and awake to that stern sense of realization which says one must work and one must do.

Mississippi has a potential future if we would consider its industrial possibilities, along with its agricultural abundance. This is a great State. But greater will it become when men and women will get to work, eschew cheap politics and quit hoping for something for nothing from State and Federal set-up.

GULF COAST REALTY

THERE is a well-defined ripple of activity in Gulf Coast realty values. A sojourn along the coastal strand reveals improvements of substantial character and indicative of the return of that former time when investments of this kind will again attract.

Construction of dwellings in all sections are noted. Here in our own immediate sector and across the Bay there are more instances than a few of that kind. Repairs and renovations are numerous and provide for a channel of distribution of money paid for labor and material that otherwise might remain dormant.

The hammer and saw and painter's brush have remained inactive for long a period. Workmen have suffered lack of employment and channels of business in consequence have felt a depressed condition.

When buildings in course of construction are noted and capital no longer remains timid these are unmistakable signs of the return of better times.

Gulf Coast realty values never lost any of their intrinsic worth. The market was low as result of lack of demand, however, there is a new dawn and The Echo has every abiding faith in the return of real estate to the state of normalcy in the immediate future.

Of the various signs of return of improved conditions is found in the re-opening of one of the Coast's larger resort hotels for the summer season. The Edgewater Gulf has re-opened for the summer this year, the first time in several years. Its last winter season was reported more of a success than in several years.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING OF MEN AND MATTERS IN EDITORIAL EXPRESSION

TO DRAIN UP AND CLEAN UP HENDERSON POINT

(Pass Christian Tarpon)

SUPERVISOR E. J. Adam, Sr., is having all the preliminary work necessary to form the foundation of a system of drainage throughout all of that portion of Henderson Point lying south of the L. and N. Railroad, and at the same time remove all the rough shrubbery that interferes seriously with the drainage of one of the most beautiful tracts of land that borders on the Gulf of Mexico, and in the recent condition provides a year-round nest for mosquito breeding.

Mr. Adam has secured the names of the owners of every piece of property in tract named, and permission of the owners will be requested to perfect the drainage, to trim all the trees, without the destruction of any, with the view of transforming what is now, in many parts, unsightly, into a healthy and attractive spot of land.

Capt. John H. Lang and Engineer Robt. Gernon are in charge of the preparatory work, and a set-up for a project under the WPA provisions.

TIRED OF CHEAP POLITICS

EDITOR of the Jackson News is tired of politics. He would eschew the boon-doggling of candidates. Here is part of a front-page editorial:

Here in Jackson we have grown weary of nibbling at sucker bait. We are awakening to a realization that we must work out our own salvation, just as mankind has done since the dawn of time; that God helps those people who first help themselves; that political promises are as devoid of stability as stairs of sand; that most politicians are liars, and all liars are politicians.

So that's that. Here in Jackson we are on our way to better things, knowing that things will be made better only when, through individual effort, we strive to make them so.

Let the song of the hammer and the saw continue! It is sweeter by far than all the boon-doggling of candidates who want to fasten their greedy lips on the public teat. It means far more to your happiness, prosperity, and general welfare than the most cunning platform ever conceived by an aspirant for public favor.

As one who has devoted nearly forty of the best years of his life to the upbuilding of Jackson, this writer can frankly say that he would rather see one new home in construction than listen to the super-heated oratory of every man who is seeking public office in Mississippi today.

The ground covered in a political speech means little. It is usually left littered with barren promises.

The ground broken for a new dwelling adds something substantial to the welfare and wealth of our people.

GOLDEN HOURS

(Philadelphia) (Miss.) Democrat

WELL, we're at the halfway mark of 1935.

The days and the months slip by mightily fast.

It seems only yesterday that people were discussing Easter... cool weather... poor cotton planting time.

Today, cotton blooms have already been brought in.

To-morrow, so to speak, there'll be the bolls, the fruit, and the harvest... and Fall will be upon us.

Perhaps we agonize over the flight of time.

Yet what a blessing it is, after all, that some of the miseries and aches of the day may be blotted out by the passing of the night.

If we had to live every day over and over again, it would be miserable in the extreme, in many instances.

The flight of time also drives home to us the urgency and necessity of making our present hours count to the best advantage.

Because never was there a truer, yet more pitiful, thought than this: "Lost—Somewhere between sunrise and sunset, one Golden Hour. No reward is offered, because it will never be recovered."

CITIZENS' COMMITTEE REPLIES TO SUPERVISOR
CALVIN SHAW'S COMMUNICATION APPEARING IN LAST ISSUE OF THE SEA COAST ECHO, JULY 5TH.Communication Takes Issue with Committee Regarding Measurements of Lumber and Contradicts Several Statements—Willing to Back Claim in Courts.

Following is an official reply to the letter from Mr. Calvin Shaw and his committee in the Sea Coast Echo, publication of July 5, 1935.

Inasmuch as Supervisor Calvin Shaw and his committee in their reply to the Citizens' Committee's report published June 21st, 1935, charge that the Citizens' Committee was unfair refused to cooperate, and refused to give credit for lumber which they claimed was due Mr. Shaw, the Citizens' Committee, in self defense, wishes to point out certain unfair and untrue allegations in Mr. Shaw's article and in the report of his committee.

First. Mr. Shaw made the statement that he tried to have some representation on the Citizens' Committee, but that every appeal he made was rejected. We wish to state that absolutely was not true. Mr. Shaw appointed his committee, three men, and had them ready to go with the Citizens' Committee when we arrived at his house on the morning of June 11.

Second. He further stated that the Citizens' Committee would not co-operate with his committee in checking the lumber in question. Which is another untruth. For these committees worked together in perfect harmony for two days, in checking every bridge and culvert in the beat, only disagreeing on the kind of lumber used, and the time it was put there.

Third. Mr. Shaw further stated that after finishing the second day's check, the Citizens' Committee refused to meet back and go with his committee to check two roads that he now claims we did not check. This finished the second day's checking too is an untruth. For when we had his own committee said that so far as they knew, that was all. One member of his committee stated that they "could not make the lumber and put it there" to supply the deficiency our check showed. We know of no other two roads that were not checked.

Fourth. Mr. Shaw further charged mother Mrs. James Mocklin. Among her guests were her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carver, Jimmy Landry, Jimmy Russell, Billie, Harold and Eddie Zimmerman, Lucia and Iran Mocklin.

Mrs. Hilda Leonard rewarded her regular attendants of her recreation project by helping them celebrate the 4th of July. Games were played, patriotic songs sung, and refreshments which were donated were served.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

To those who took advantage of the installment plan of paying their Taxes, the last payment is due on or before August 1st for 1934 Taxes.

In order to avoid any extra charges other than the one-half of one per cent per month interest on this last payment we advise that you call sometime during this month and settle these Taxes.

To those who have not paid any Tax on their Real Estate for the year 1934, advice that we have secured a postponement of the sale required by law to be held on the first Monday in April, until the third Monday in September, which will be the 16th day of September. In order to make this sale it has to be published in four issues of the paper prior to that date and will require sometime in addition to that of our Office force to prepare the list for publication. So in order to prevent any additional charges, this also will have to be paid on or before the first of August this year.

As soon afterwards as we can get the Sale of Real Property off our hands, a list of the Personal Tax that is delinquent will be prepared and turned over to the Deputies in the various districts for collection. So we advise that you get this Tax paid as soon as possible also.

T. E. KELLAR, Sheriff and Tax Collector.

Lt.-Governor Dennis Murphree

His platform is good from bottom to top, every plank in it. He believes we should have good roads within the bounds of reason. He believes we should have all good things but the best thing he believes in is pay as you go. In other words he is not in favor of burdening the people to death with taxation. We have had bad roads for a thousand years, why not be content to have good roads in a few years, instead of all at once. If he had but one plank in his platform, pay as you go, it alone should elect him Governor of Mississippi.

Personal and General

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES ZERR CELEBRATE TENTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY MONDAY.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zerr quietly celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary Monday at their home, corner North Beach, Boulevard and de Montuzin avenue, with a dinner during the afternoon hours. They were well remembered by friends, a number of messages, gifts and flowers sent in observance of the day.

Mr. Zerr is well and widely known in New Orleans where he formerly resided, connected with the moving picture projection profession and for the past few years in charge of the local operating room of the A. & G. Theater, Bay St. Louis. Mrs. Zerr, before her marriage, was Miss Lillian Ames, a sister of Miss Geraldine Ames and a niece of Mrs. P. G. Gaud, proprietors of the A. & G. Theater. The Echo adds its best wishes and congratulations.

MANY FRIENDS OF MISS JOSIE E. WELCH CONGRATULATE HER ON BIRTHDAY.

Miss Josie E. Welch was thoughtfully and abundantly remembered Monday, July 8, on the occasion of her birthday. Friends from several States, as well as locally, showered her with congratulatory messages, by letter and wire, and local friends greeted her in person and otherwise manifested their love and sincerity. Beautiful flowers found way to her home. An outstanding remembrance was the sending of a beautiful birthday cake from the Sisters of Charity at New Orleans.

She was the guest of honor at a birthday dinner given here by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zerr, life-long friends. The table was decorated with carnations and other flowers that had been sent Miss Welch.

There is no person living in this city who has more friends over the country than Miss Welch. Her personal mail is by far larger than any one person. Her daily writing is by far larger than ordinarily, corresponding with friends who are highly connected in social, official and literary circles. Herself an author, newspaper writer, author of verses, she is well known. Her appreciation of life and its people stamps her as a fine citizen, a character of sterling quality and a friend of indelible endurance. What more could be said of a person that he or she is a true friend?

Miss Welch's book shop and literary studio is a place enshrined with memories of friends from all parts who have journeyed hither to pay her tribute. Locally it is a Mecca for people of culture, where the literati assemble and a place where friends meet and commune with the brilliant mind and generous heart of this remarkable woman.

May "Miss Josie" as she is affectionately called by many, live to see many recurring occasions of the kind of July 8.

FORMER RESIDENT HAS SUCCESSFUL SEA TRIP BACK HOME IN HONDURAS.

Mrs. W. J. Kidd, who left here some weeks ago to join her family at Castilla, British Honduras, C. A., writes of her safe arrival after a perfect sea voyage of 'marvelous weather,' and the weather in Castilla "as cool as the mountain air of North Carolina." While residing here the past three years and more Mrs. Kidd formed a wide circle of friends and acquaintances who will be pleased to learn of her successful and safe trip.
